

Dear all,

TIGZ ist very excited to extend a cordial invitation to our upcoming event “From Business and Purpose“, put together in cooperation with Silicon Beach Australia. This is our first international event.

The event language is English, registration is free of charge under this link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZl5d-6qrTstE9OSa1BdPWFCbr1GxTW8Dk7q>, however please note that space is limited.

SESSION OUTLINE

Can doing good not just give you purpose but can be profitable at the same time? Interact live with our two panellists from Germany and Australia about their exciting journeys of becoming social entrepreneurs. Learn about their "why's" and how social entrepreneurship is changing the world on both sides of the globe.

THE SPEAKERS

Sakshi Thakur / AUSTRALIA:

Founder of Humanism Global and Startup Educator.

Humanism aims to provide safe and sustainable work to humans living in poverty. Humanism currently co-designs textiles education and employment opportunities with humans living in rural Pondicherry (South India) through creating hand-made conference bags and artisanal lanyards for Australian organisations.

Manuel Kreitmeir / GERMANY:

Co-Founder/Director Center for Open Social Innovation.

The Center for Open Social Innovation (COSI) was founded with the mission to use open innovation and social entrepreneurship to solve humanity's greatest challenges. COSI brings together partners like Microsoft, SAP, Volkswagen, Heidelberg University and the European Commission to find innovative solutions to social and environmental challenges.
